Treasurer Report

Alex will present at the next board meeting.

Director Update

July was busy with circulation and in person visits in record numbers. Electronic visits and social media numbers up from previous months; 32 programs with 537 attendees in July. New Acorn catalog has a much improved interface. Website updates to come including event details for the Open House on Sept. 4th. Masks and social distancing now required following town mandates.

Open Meeting Laws

Lisa reviewed the laws and reminded everyone about group e-mail communication (3 or under can email for discussion but more than 4 warrants a public meeting).

Meeting Times

The board decided to change the regular meeting time to 5pm on Thursdays; Kevin will attend via Zoom as that is his normal day off. Next meeting is Sept. 16 at 5pm.

Open House

Alice reviewed the event details planned for Sept. 4th. Holly will create a flyer, Charlotte will submit article to Shelburne News.

Library Enhancements

Everyone reviewed the document with ideas for indoor and outdoor improvements; several enhancements are already done or are in the works. Kevin expects the ARPA Federal Stimulus Plan funding to be granted which includes money to buy two picnic tables and library collections. Alice will look into planters; Charlotte and Becky will meet with Tim Williams at Exterus about ordering some additional furniture.

Upcoming Items

Becky and John did Kevin's annual performance review and will present at the September board meeting in executive session.

Shelburne Day is August 21st on the Town Parade.

Next meeting is September 16 at 5pm.

Charlotte moved to adjourn the meeting at 8:36pm, Alice seconded; all voted in favor.
